Planing & Pagination

Software for planning and pagination?

The answer is:

Journal Designer oder ClassWizard!

Journal Designer is the leading software application for magazine planning since years. The product is convincing with it's high flexibility and configuration possibilities as well as it's close integration in the editoriel workflow.

Also concerning pagination we are happy that we could offer our customers one of the leading products of the last years - ClassWizard!

ClassWizard is especially developed for the work in newspapers and advertising journals . The product convinces by it's highspeed transfer of big datavolumes, as well as it's platform neutral and therefore very flexible applicability.